ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY CIVIL PENALTIES AND COSTS SHOULD NOT BE IMPOSED

On the 13th day of September, 2006, the Enforcement Section of the Missouri Securities Division (the “Division”), through Nathan Soendker, Chief Registration Counsel, submitted a Petition for Order to Cease and Desist and Order to Show Cause Why Civil Penalties and Costs Should Not Be Imposed. After reviewing the petition, the Commissioner issues the following findings of fact, conclusions of law and order:

I. FINDINGS OF FACT

Respondents AFG and Freese

1. AFG Capital Management, Inc. (“AFG”) was a Kansas registered investment adviser and had a business address of 11020 King Street, Ste 330, Overland Park, Kansas 66210-1201. At all times relevant to this order, AFG was not registered as an investment adviser in Missouri.
2. James A. Freese (“Freese”), CRD #2635569, was the President of AFG and had a business address of 11020 King Street, Ste 330, Overland Park, Kansas 66210-1201.
3. On or about February 6, 2004, a Missouri Resident (“MR”) was solicited in Missouri by an AFG agent to rollover MR’s IRA to AFG. During this solicitation the AFG agent told MR that the IRA rollover would be managed by Charles Schwab (“Schwab”). MR received periodic account statements from AFG that indicated “Charles Schwab” on the statements.
4. For purposes of this Order, “Respondents” refers to AFG, Freese, and their representatives and agents.

5. On or about September 1, 2006, MR visited a Schwab agent and subsequently discovered that Schwab did not have an account established in MR's name or referencing MR's Social Security number. At no time during the relevant period were MR's IRA funds managed by Schwab. MR immediately emailed AFG and asked AFG to prepare a check for MR in the full amount of MR's account balance.
6. During an interview with the Kansas Securities Division, Freese told investigators that he pooled the assets of approximately 20 clients into a pooled account. MR's funds were in this pooled account and according to Freese the funds in the pooled account totaled approximately $8,000,000.

Additional Findings of Fact

7. A check of the records maintained by the Missouri Commissioner of Securities confirmed the Respondents were not registered to offer and sell securities in the State of Missouri. In addition, the agent who solicited MR was not registered as an investment adviser representative.
8. A check of the records maintained by the Missouri Commissioner of Securities confirmed no registration, granted exemption or notice filing indicating status as a "federal covered security" for any of the securities offered by the Respondents in the State of Missouri.
9. In connection with the offer or sale of securities to MR, Respondents omitted to state the following:
 - a. That Respondents were not registered to sell securities in the State of Missouri;
 - b. That AFG was not registered in the State of Missouri as investment adviser;
 - c. That the AFG agent who solicited the Missouri resident was not registered in the State of Missouri;
 - d. The actual use of MR's investment proceeds; and
 - e. Any risks associated with the investment.
10. In connection with the offer and sale of securities to Missouri investors, Respondents made untrue statement of material fact, including, but not limited to, that MR's money would be managed by Schwab.
11. This Order is in the public interest.

II. STATUTORY PROVISIONS

12. Section 409.1-102(26), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2005), defines "sale" to include, "every contract of sale, contract to sell, or disposition of, a security or interest in a security for value." 17. Section 409.5-501, RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2005), reads as follows:

 - (1) To employ a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;
 - (2) To make an untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in the light of the circumstances under which it is made, not misleading; or
 - (3) To engage in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon another person.”
18. Section 409.6-604(a), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2005), reads as follows:

“If the commissioner determines that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this act or a rule adopted or order issued under this act or that a person has materially aided, is materially aiding, or is about to materially aid an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this act or a rule adopted or order issued under this act, the commissioner may:

(1) Issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from engaging in the act, practice, or course of business or to take other action necessary or appropriate to comply with this act . . .”

19. Section 409.6-604(b), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2005), reads as follows:

“An order under subsection (a) is effective on the date of issuance . . . [I]f a person subject to the order does not request a hearing and none is ordered by the commissioner within thirty days after the date of service of the order, the order becomes final as to that person by operation of law.”

20. Section 409.6-604(d), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2005), reads as follows:

“In a final order . . . the commissioner may impose a civil penalty up to one thousand dollars for a single violation or up to ten thousand dollars for more than one violation.”

21. Section 409.6-604(e), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2005), reads as follows:

“In a final order, the commissioner may charge the actual cost of an investigation or proceeding for a violation of this act . . . [T]hese funds may be paid into the investor education and protection fund.”

22. Section 409.6-604(g), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2005), reads as follows:

“If a person does not comply with an order under this section, the commissioner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the order . . . [i]f the court finds, after service and opportunity for hearing, that the person was not in compliance with the order, the court may adjudge the person in civil contempt of the order. The court may impose a further civil penalty against the person for contempt in an amount not less than five thousand dollars but not greater than one hundred thousand dollars for each violation and may grant any other relief the court determines is just and proper in the circumstance.”

23. The Missouri Commissioner of Securities is empowered to issue such orders as he may deem just pursuant to Section 409.6-604(a), RSMo. (Cum. Supp. 2005).
